

Journal #5c: The Struggle for North America

1. Analysis & Notes:

Analyze the maps below. Compare and contrast the land claims of each nation in 1754 and 1763. Take notes based upon your observations.

Part II: Historical Content Tasks

- 2a. Identify the nations that have claimed land in North America by 1750 & note the relative size, specific location, and geographic significance of each claim (1750)
- b. Rank the countries based upon the overall size of each nation's land claims in 1750.
- c1. Which rivers are crucial to controlling the interior sections of North America? c2. Which Mountains are the western border of the Louisiana territory? c3. Which nations claimed land along the Gulf of Mexico? c4. Who lived in the land of modern day Seattle, WA in 1750 & 1763?
- 3a. Identify the nations that have claimed land in North America by 1763 & note the relative size, specific location, and geographic significance of each claim (1763)
- b. Which nation last lost the most land in North America by 1763?
- c. Which nation gained the most land in North America by 1763?
- d. Rank the countries based upon the overall size of each nation's land claims in 1750..
- e. What does the red line on the East coast of North America represent in 1763?
- f. What impact did the Proclamation of 1763 have upon the social contract between the colonists and the British government?

